

Press Release- For Immediate Release
October 29th 2012

Chicago Jet Group Congratulates Their Own For Scholarship

Chicago/ Aurora, IL- Chicago Jet Group would like to congratulate their Charter Manager, Kara Dunaway, for winning the 2012 Women in Corporate Aviation (WCA), AirCare Facts Training Scholarship.

“Only women and men who will positively impact the future of Corporate Aviation receive this scholarship.” says Women in Corporate Aviation.

Kara strives to enhance her education and industry knowledge to ensure CJG’s growth in the industry. She will utilize the scholarship to attend a five day initial emergency procedures training for business aviation crew members. With her new knowledge of what’s required of flight attendant’s and cabin safety , Kara will improve flight attendant training policies and ensure pilots are up to date on safety standards.

“We look forward to both Kara’s development and the growth of our charter department in the future.” says Kyle Uhelski, Business Development Director at Chicago Jet Group.

For More Information Contact:

Kyle Uhelski

(630)-466-3600

Kyleu@chicagojetgroup.com

###